REPORT OF FOREST FIRE WARDEN

Prevent Forest Fires—It Pays

An average of 7,300 acres of woodland are burned over by forest fires in New Hampshire each year destroying many thousand dollars worth of property of all descriptions. It costs many additional thousands of dollars and requires valuable man hours, taken from other essential work, to extinguish them. These losses affect the personal fortunes of the owners and town and state economies. Everyone loses because of them.

Analysis of fire causes reveal the fact that more than 98 per cent of all forest fires are, consistently, the result of human carelessness and are preventable!

We have been extremely fortunate during the past few years. Favorable fire weather and war time restrictions on travel which kept people off the highways and out of the woods have aided materially in reducing fire risks, keeping fires fewer and fire losses low.

We now face changed conditions. People can travel freely. Their love for travel and the freedom of the woods will bring them out in ever increasing numbers. This will step up fire risks materially. The accelerated cutting of the war years has resulted in additional thousands of slash acres. These factors, combined with a possible dry season and human carelessness could easily produce a catastrophe. Everyone must, consequently, be on their guard. They should

1. Be careful with fire or when smoking in or near woodlands.
2. Cooperate with the local forest fire warden and his deputies by
  - a. Abiding cheerfully with whatever restrictions it may be necessary to impose. They are intended only to be helpful.
  - b. Securing permits to burn debris when the ground is not covered with snow.

- c. Seeing that others comply with requirements.
- d. Promptly coming to the warden's assistance when needed.

If these few fundamental practices are followed it will be possible to prevent a large proportion of forest fires from starting. That pays!

(b) Administrative Problems

There are many administrative problems facing me as I resume my work here as your superintendent of schools, but the following six seem the most important right now: (1) the procurement of qualified teachers to fill vacancies, both during the school year and for next year, (2) the guidance of teachers lacking experience and/or training toward more efficient instructional procedures, (3) the development with a minimum of wasted time and as a cooperative effort of teachers, superintendent and school board of a more wisely planned educational program, (4) the procurement as needed of properly selected instructional materials, (5) the provision of better school transportation, and (6) the improvement of school equipment and buildings.

Probably my most important job as superintendent of schools is to procure for the schools teachers who are competent by reason of aptitude, training and experience. For the past few months an appreciable number of young men have returned to teaching positions from the armed services, and this has relieved noticeably the desperate lack of teachers in the high schools but for the elementary grade few of these young men are either qualified for teaching on that level or willing to accept the salaries offered. Another factor at work to make good teachers scarce is that many women teachers are leaving teaching positions because their husbands are returning and both husband and wife want the kind of a home it is not possible to have when the wife works. The prospects are that the teacher shortage will continue for several years and that in spite of our best efforts many boys and girls next year will be lacking the help of well qualified competent teachers. Increasing the attractiveness of teaching by offering reasonable salaries and more liberal sick leave and by providing suitable instructional equipment would go a long way in relieving the deplorable condition.

Probably my second most important duty is to keep headmasters, principals, and teachers properly guided and informed relative to the educational programs that have been developed and accepted for the schools of this union. At the present time the number of teachers who are new in this union and even new to teaching is so great that each one of them can get only a small part of my time that she should have to make her work as effective as we all feel it really should be.

A third problem in this union urgently pressing for attention is the revision of our educational program in the light of the knowledge we have gained through our war experiences. This problem has various phases: (1) The social science program should be revamped to bring about a better understanding and appreciation of all classes, nationalities and groups of people all over the world; (2) the health and physical education program must be so changed as to develop in pupils habits of cleanliness, recreation, physical activity, sanitation, mental and emotional balance that will serve their needs throughout their lives rather than just while in school or for isolated periods, as keeping healthy and strong mentally and physically is more important than getting that way; (3) the programs for such subjects as shop, agriculture, commerce, home economics need to be rebuilt to insure that pupils grow in understanding the way of things as well as in manipulative skills; and (4) the whole program must incorporate our new thinking resulting from our new found ability to travel at the speed of sound, to radar the moon, to atomize whole cities with a handful of atomic energy, to record electromagnetic sound signals from the sun, and to comprehend that the whole world must be treated as a unit economically, socially and politically.

The fourth problem comes from the fact that good teachers, wisely led, and guided by a well balanced, effective program need a continuing supply of properly designed instructional materials, and equipment such as textbooks, bulletins, study guides, hand tools, power tools, lumber, metal, typewriters and other office machines, musical instruments, sheet music, recorded music, educational films, and other visual aids including charts, globes and maps, cooking stoves, food preservers, sewing machines, duplicating machines, colored crayons, pencils, chemicals, biological specimens, baseballs. The selection and procurement of these materials requires much careful study.

The fifth problem derives from the fact that those children living beyond walking distance from schools should have suitable transportation. By suitable transportation I mean that the vehicles must be safe, warm, and comfortable; that they are run on schedules that do not require children to start too early or get home too late, and that they are operated by careful, reliable, courteous drivers. The war has caused the continued use of many unsafe and uncomfortable vehicles, and due to the critical scarcity of all vehicles routes have been combined causing many children to leave home at an unreasonably early hour and get home at night so late there is not time for them to relax or rest before supper. Also the shortage of manpower has forced the employment of some drivers who are not conscientious about holding to schedule or competent in controlling the conduct of pupils. These conditions require careful study and corrections as soon as possible.

As for the sixth problem a cursory view of buildings and equipment in this union is convincing that it was not possible during the war to make the repairs and replacements necessary to keep our educational facilities up to a standard that is safe, sanitary, and economical. Door latches and hinges are worn out, roofs leak, walls are cracked, desks are rickety and badly scratched, heating units are porous from rust, insulation has disappeared from pipes, shop tools are worn out, lighting fixtures are broken, toilets are clogged and cracked. Much work is needed in procuring suitable replacement units and repair parts and in hiring and supervising competent repairmen.

These six problems I have mentioned do not by any means exhaust the list of those things that must receive attention but they do indicate the most critical areas in which are needed intelligent plans painstakingly executed.

PART V. Auxiliary Activities and Special Reports

(a) Report of the Headmaster, Henry Hastings

I hereby submit my first annual report of the Alton high school, which opened on September 5, with an enrollment of 34 pupils. Since that time six more pupils enrolled and two left town so that at midyears there were 38 pupils divided as follows: Seniors, 9; juniors, 9; sophomores, 8; freshmen, 11; and specials (P. G.), 1.

On June 21, 1945, seven pupils were graduated from this school and are at present located as follows: Simmonds College, 1; Laconia Business College, 2; waitresses, 2; cashier, 1, and married, 1.

Nine tuition pupils are registered in high school: Eight from Gilmauton and one from Barnstead.

The three changes in the teaching staff at the opening of the school term in September are as follows: Miss Anne Gargulo was engaged as teacher of English and foreign languages but has since asked for a release of her contract and Miss Joan St. James has taken her place; Miss Ella-Marie Nourse teaches social studies and coaches girls' athletics, and Henry Hastings, headmaster, teaches mathematics and chemistry and coaches boys' athletics. Mrs. Hayes continues to render the same valuable service as during the war years.

The motion picture machine was finally delivered and already has been used several times. Visual education is an invaluable supplement to the textbooks and classroom teaching.

New texts were purchased for the modern European history class and various other books were ordered to replace or add to those already in use.

Our twelfth annual winter carnival was held January 25 and 26. The grade school events were scheduled for Friday afternoon and the high school events were scheduled for Saturday. The carnival ball and publicity work contributed to the financial success of the carnival.

The Student Activities Association had been very active this year. In addition to raising money to pay for the picture machine it has been able to finance all the athletic programs so far and has purchased warm-up jackets. Plans for their financing is well under way.

With restrictions on travel lifted the high school has greatly expanded its inter-school athletic program. For the first time cross-country running was introduced as a varsity sport. Improvement was so rapid that the team placed third in the state meet at Durham. In addition, we had the honor of having Carl Desautelle place first in the meet and become the state champion, beating all previous records by over a minute.

Basketball once more assumes its old place on the winter sports program with the high school again a participating member of the Southeastern League. The teams have shown continued improvement from the first and in all contests the pupils have been outstanding in their determination and good sportsmanship. It is expected that baseball and softball will also be on a larger scale than in the past few years.

The standards of achievements are consistently on a high level and especial effort was put forth this year to improve the attendance record. An attempt was made to show that maximum returns can never be realized unless every pupil is in school all of the time and that tardinesses not only mean loss of valuable classroom contacts but that the habit is apt to prove a serious handicap in later years.

With the return of Mr. George Hurley from the navy it was felt that the school would be materially strengthened if the junior high was partially departmentalized. Such departmentalization can mean much to this age group when the staff is competent.

Although the agricultural course was advisedly dropped last year very serious consideration should be given to the possibility of expanding the school's offering for the boys. Unless some type of vocational training is offered many will not be able to satisfy their educational needs and to just that degree the school will have failed to fulfill its obligation to the young people of the town.

Cooperation between the pupils, parents and teachers has been very gratifying to me as only through this spirit can we be sure that our graduates will be fully equipped to meet the problems they will have to face in adult life.

(b) Report of School Health Work

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

Routine school health work was carried on in the Alton schools and no very serious cases came up for consideration during the year, though one pupil was taken to the hospital and one to the doctor for minor treatments. Such cases will be easier to get under treatment now that Dr. Appleyard is right in town.

A Red Cross home nursing class was held weekly on Thursday evenings all last winter at the high school building. Eight girls, two boys, and eight mothers received certificates from this course, which was a credit course for high school pupils.

All pupils in high school and junior high school had a rapid review of the Red Cross first aid course. A first aid film was shown to help visualize more clearly the half forgotten procedures.

Hearing tests were given to all pupils in grades above the first and second. No very serious case involving both ears was found.

Some eye clinic work was done and one case was operated upon for tonsils and adenoids at Wolfboro in July.

Hot lunches during the winter months continued with much benefit to pupils. Milk was also served when it could be procured.

Following will be found a statistical report of the health work:

Pupils examined	156
